Data Source (72.2%), Processing (98.5%), Required Purpose (84.2%):

A cookie is a small data file that is transferred to your computers hard disk or your mobile device for record-keeping purposes.

Processing (96.6%):

The Service may send cookies to a computer or a mobile device when a user accesses or views a Service.

Processing (96.3%):

Information contained in a cookie may be linked to personal information for purposes such as improving the quality of Memes Service, tailoring recommendations to interests, and making the Service easier to use.

Processing (82.4%), Third Party (79.7%):

Third party advertisers on the Services may also use, place or read cookies or other technologies as described below on your browser, and those practices are subject to their own policies.

Processing (76.3%), Technical Measure (98.0%):

Flash cookies operate differently than browser cookies and cookie management tools available in a web browser may not remove flash cookies.

Art. 17 Right to erasure (right to be forgotten) (67.5%), Processing (91.2%), Required Purpose (93.5%), Technical Measure (98.9%):

We and our service providers may also employ other technologies including (i) web beacons, which allow us to know if a certain page was visited or whether an email was opened; (ii) tracking pixels, which allow us or our advertising partners to advertise more efficiently and effectively by excluding our current users from certain promotional messages, identifying the source of a new installation or delivering ads to you on other websites; and (iii) local shared objects also known as flash cookies, which help us to reduce fraud, remember your in-game preferences and speed up load times.

Non-Personal Data (65.0%), Organisational Measure (75.0%), Personal Data (99.0%), Processing (79.1%), Technical Measure (89.2%), Third Party (97.7%):

We and our service providers use these log files, tags, and tracking technologies to collect and analyze certain kinds of technical information, including: the type of device you are using; your operating system version; your mobile devices identifiers, like your MAC Address, Identifier For Advertising (IDFA), and/or International Mobile Equipment Identity (IMEI); your browser types; your browser language; referring and exit pages, and URLs; platform type; the number of clicks on a page or feature; domain names; landing pages; pages viewed and the order of those pages; the amount of time spent on particular pages; and game state and the date and time of activity on our websites or games.

Personal Data (98.3%):

In some cases, we will connect this information with your social network ID or Meme user ID.

Consent (98.8%):

Processing (81.8%):

Information About You That You Share With Us Directly When you use our Services (whether through a social network or through Meme directly), you may give us information directly (like when you're setting up your account) and we will store that on our systems and use it for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

Organisational Measure (61.5%), Processing (92.6%), Required Purpose (87.2%):

Some games or parts of our Services may use a more traditional registration or account set-up process where you may be asked to give us some or all of the following information: your age or birthday; your first and last names; your e-mail address; other information that helps us make sure it's you accessing your account or helps us improve our services (such as answers to an online survey or a feedback form).

Processing (68.0%):

Information You Generate Using Our Communications Features Except for games designed for children under 13, you may be able to take part in certain activities on our Service that let you communicate or share information not just with Meme, but also with other Meme players.

Personal Data (99.0%), Processing (89.8%):

These include: participating in player forums and message boards; posting public comments to other players' profiles or gameboards; sending private messages or invitations to other players, either directly on our websites or to their e-mail accounts; chatting with other players; and/or posting photos or drawings.

Consent (63.2%), Processing (80.5%), Required Purpose (82.1%):

You acknowledge and expressly agree that we may access in real-time, record and/or store archives of these communications, comments, photos and drawings on Meme's servers to make use of them to protect the safety and well-being of our players and Memes rights and property in connection with our Services; to operate, improve, personalize and optimize our Services and our players experiences, including through the use of analytics; and to manage and deliver contextual advertising.

Personal Data (99.5%), Processing (94.0%), Third Party (70.2%):

Payment Information Meme may obtain the billing and payment information that you provide when your purchase is processed by someone else (like Facebook, Apple or Google) such as when you purchase something in a game you play on a social network or that you downloaded on your mobile device.

Personal Data (99.1%):

This may include your postal address, e-mail address and financial information.

Personal Data (96.3%):

If you purchase virtual currency or virtual items in a Meme game, our third-party payment processor will collect the billing and financial information it needs to process your charges.

Personal Data (98.7%):

Meme does not collect or store your financial information, like credit card numbers.

Third Party (69.5%):

Message Boards and Chat Rooms You may be able to take part in certain activities on our websites or games that give you the opportunity to communicate or share information not just with Meme, but also with other users of our Service.

Consent (94.7%):

You may choose to disclose information about yourself in the course of contributing user generated content to Meme sites or Services or in its chat rooms, blogs, message boards, user profiles for public view or in similar forums on its sites through mobile services and/or through third party sites or services, posting public comments to other users' profiles or gameboards, sending private messages or invitations to other users, either directly on our websites or to their e-mail accounts and posting photos.

Personal Data (98.4%), Processing (99.1%), Required Purpose (95.0%):

You should be aware that any personally identifiable information you submit in the course of these public activities can be read, collected, or used by other users of these forums, and could be used to send you unsolicited messages.

Consent (81.1%), Processing (98.5%):

You acknowledge and consent to the recording and storage of such communications for these purposes.

Consent (79.0%), Personal Data (97.5%), Processing (73.1%):

If you post a video, image or photo through a Service for public view, you should be aware that these may be viewed, collected, copied and/or used by other users without your consent.

Customer Support Correspondence Except as provided herein, when you ask for help from our Customer Support team, we will collect and store the contact information you give them (generally, your name and e-mail address), information about your game play or activity on our Services, and your Meme player and/or social network ID number.

Personal Data (96.8%), Recipient (64.3%), Required Purpose (73.8%):

and its Affiliates, which shall mean subsidiaries, parent companies, joint ventures and other corporate entities under common ownership.

Required Purpose (95.4%):

We will also store the communications you have with the Customer Service team and any information in those communications in order to provide support and improve the Services.

Required Purpose (99.5%):

We use this information along with information you provide us directly, for example, to help you and your friends connect or to serve you advertising more tailored to your interests.

Required Purpose (97.8%):

2- How We Use the Information We Collect and With Whom We Share It How We Use Your Information The main use of the information we collect and store is to provide a better gaming experience, but there are other uses as well.

Required Purpose (92.4%), Third Party (74.4%):

The uses for which we collect and store your information include: to create your game accounts and allow you to play our games; to operate, improve and optimize our Services and our players experiences; to identify and suggest connections with other Meme players and personalize our Services to you; to enable players to communicate with each other; to provide technical support and respond to player inquiries; to protect the safety and well-being of our players; to protect Meme's rights and property in connection with our Services; to prevent fraud or potentially illegal activities, and to enforce our Terms of Service; to manage and deliver contextual and behavioral advertising; to notify players of in-game updates, new products or promotional offers; to administer rewards, surveys, sweepstakes, contests, or other promotional activities or events sponsored or managed by us or our business partners; to comply with our legal obligations, resolve any disputes we may have with you or other players, and to enforce our agreements with third parties.

Required Purpose (91.0%):

In this Privacy Policy, Meme refers to Meme Inc.

Data Subject (81.1%), Non-Personal Data (77.6%), Third Party (82.0%):

We may also let you create a player profile, separate from your social networking site profile (for example, your Facebook profile), that other Meme players can see.

Required Purpose (72.5%):

One important use of your information is communication.

Non-Personal Data (82.2%), Required Purpose (92.4%):

If you have provided your e-mail address to Meme, we will use it to respond to Customer Support inquiries, and keep you informed of your in-game activity, including comments from friends, let you know about in-game status and promotions as well as tell you about gift and neighbor requests.

Personal Data (98.8%):

Some messages, like invites for friends to join you in a game, may include your name and profile photo.

Third Party (87.7%):

We may also send promotional e-mail messages ("Promotional Communications") directly or in partnership with other parties, in accordance with your marketing preferences.

Consent (95.6%):

Each Promotional Communication will offer you choices about receiving additional messages.

Non-Personal Data (97.4%), Required Purpose (90.5%):

How We Share Your Information We may disclose or publish aggregated information (information about you and other players collectively that is not intended to specifically identify you, for example, players between the ages of 25 and 30 who live Chicago) and other non-personal information about our players for industry analysis, demographic profiling, marketing, analytics, advertising, and other business purposes.

Non-Personal Data (69.3%):

Meme is not responsible for the personally identifiable information you choose to make public in any of these forums.

Third Party (69.9%):

In addition, we may share your information (which may include personal information) with third parties (in other words, parties other than Meme) or allow third parties to collect this information from our Services in the following circumstances: 3.

Legitimate Interest (96.5%), Non-Personal Data (97.3%):

Aggregated and Analytical Information We use anonymous, statistical or aggregated information and may share it with our partners for legitimate business purposes.

Processing (94.4%):

It has no effect on your privacy, because there is no reasonable way to extract data from the aggregated information that can be associated with you.

Consent (66.1%):

We will share your identifiable information only subject to the terms of this policy, or subject to your prior consent.

Third Party (66.5%):

Friends and Other Meme Players The Service supports and often encourages you to interact with other players.

Personal Data (92.9%):

However, Memes payment processors may share non-financial information with us related to your purchases, like your name, billing address and the items purchased in order to fulfill your order.

Non-Personal Data (66.9%):

In most Meme games, if you play through a social network or register through a social network (for example, Facebook Connect), your social network friends will see your name, profile photo and descriptions of your game activity.

Non-Personal Data (66.3%):

Similarly, in many Meme games, other players, regardless of whether they are your social network friends or not, will be able to see descriptions of your game activity (including the identification of any Meme games you have played), communicate with you within our Services, and view your game profile, which may include your name or a game name and your profile photo.

Consent (77.3%):

We do not actively share personal information with third-party advertisers for their direct marketing purposes unless you give us your consent.

Third Party (98.7%):

If you access our Services from a third-party application or connect our Services to a third-party application, you should also read that third-party applications Terms of Service and Privacy Policy.

Non-Personal Data (92.5%), Personal Data (98.8%), Technical Measure (62.2%), Third Party

(98.4%):

When advertisers or ad networks place ads in our Services, they may collect or we may share the following types of information from within our Services: performance data (like the number of clicks on an advertisement); aggregated and/or de-identified information about you and other players collectively that is not intended to specifically identify you (like players between the ages of 21 and 25 who live San Francisco); certain technical information (for example, IP addresses, non-persistent device identifiers such as IDFAs, and de-identified persistent device identifiers such as a hashed Android ID); your social network ID; and other contextual data about your game play (for example, your level and session length).

Required Purpose (85.0%):

The information collected may be used to: measure how effective ads are, to offer you targeted advertising in order to personalize your experience by showing you advertisements for products and services that are more likely to appeal to you (a practice known as behavioral advertising), and/or undertake web analytics (like Google Analytics which is used to analyze traffic and other player activity to improve your experience).

Technical Measure (84.2%):

Advertisers or ad networks may collect this information through the use of tracking technologies like browser cookies and web beacons, and they may use a single tracking technology or multiple tracking technologies at the same time.

Third Party (97.8%):

If you do not want to receive tailored in-application advertisements from third parties, please see How to Access, Update and Manage Your Information.

Processing (91.1%), Required Purpose (97.4%):

Third-Party Service Providers We will share your information with third-party companies to perform services on our behalf, like processing payments, analyzing data, optimizing game play, email delivery, hosting services, customer service and to help us in our marketing efforts, including managing and delivering contextual and tailored advertisements.

Contract (93.2%), Required Purpose (76.8%):

We contractually require these third-party service providers to maintain the confidentiality of the information we share with them, and we contractually require them not use your information for anything other than to provide services on our behalf.

Third Party (62.9%):

Sale or Merger In the event that Meme undergoes a business transition (including proposed transactions), like a merger, acquisition by another company, or sale of all or part its assets (like selling a game), we may disclose or transfer all of your information, including personal information, to the successor organization in the transition.

Personal Data (96.7%), Processing (92.5%):

We will make reasonable efforts to let you and other players know (in the way described in Changes to Our Privacy Policy) of the business transition before transferring your personal information.

Personal Data (96.5%):
