Leaderboard Our apps use Game Center and Google Play Services in order to show you a Leaderboard.

Required Purpose (94.0%):

Therefore, we do not collect nor process any of your personal data in order to show you a Leaderboard on those games; our partners do it, instead, so please refer to Terms&Conditions/Privacy Notes from them in order to know more about how they treat your data and your rights on that regards.

Processing (82.6%):

Your consent to collect and process, in that case, would have been gathered by those providers when you subscribed to their services.

Third Party (78.8%):

The ads providers we currently use are Google and Unity.

Organisational Measure (71.0%):

The providers we use may vary in time and you will be notified should this happen.

Personal Data (99.4%):

Those providers may show you ads according to your interests and in order to do so they need to collect and process some of your personal data.

Processing (99.2%):

For these reasons we ask, on their behalf, for your consent to have some of your personal data collected and processed by them.
