Any information that you provide to the event or to us via your account may also be in your RTRT participant profile.

Personal Data (84.9%):

RTRT does not intentionally collect any personal information about your race, ethnicity, or political affiliations.

Non-Personal Data (82.5%):

Anonymized data (also known as de-identified information or aggregated non-personal data) is different from personal information.

Required Purpose (88.4%):

Anonymized data is information about our users, their computers or devices and/or use of our Services that are collected into groups so that it no longer reflects or references an individually identifiable user.

Non-Personal Data (93.5%), Personal Data (95.8%), Required Purpose (75.8%):

This information may include, without limitation, information about use of our Services, web pages viewed or used, Service content accessed or used, IP addresses and device identifiers, information about hardware or software used to access the Service, user location information, page views, app usage, customization settings relating to the Service, and other types of information we collect that cannot reasonably be used to identify you personally.

Organisational Measure (60.5%), Required Purpose (92.8%):

RTRT may collect and use aggregated non-personal information to generate reports that we share with others, including Event Administrators, to gain insights on how many visitors used each of the Services, at what time, and from where in general, to improve the Service or for any other reason, at its sole discretion.

Required Purpose (72.7%):

INFO YOU PROVIDE TO US Participant Registration Data: In certain instances, you may register yourself or others for an event directly through RTRT.me if the event utilizes our registration services.

Authority (90.2%), Legal Basis (90.0%), Processing (96.2%):

LEGAL REQUESTS OR TO PREVENT HARM We may access, preserve and share information with regulators, law enforcement or others in response to a legal request (like a search warrant, court order or subpoena) if we have a good faith belief that the law requires us to do so.

Personal Data (93.4%), Processing (94.7%), Required Purpose (85.9%), Retention (96.0%):

Information we receive about you, including financial transaction data related to purchases made on or through our Services, can be accessed, processed and retained for an extended period when it is the subject of a legal request or obligation, governmental investigation, or investigations concerning possible violations of our terms or policies, or otherwise to prevent harm.

Retention (88.8%):

We may also retain information from accounts disabled for violations of our terms for at least a year to prevent repeat abuse or other term violations.

Non-Personal Data (64.2%):

AUTHORIZED THIRD-PARTY SERVICES In addition to Event Administrators, the Event may require us to share your roster profile, tracking, and timing information with authorized third-party partners who help support the event.

Non-Personal Data (66.8%):

RTRT.me is a software Platform providing real-time race tracking and other race-event related services for running and multi-sport events (the Services).

Non-Personal Data (78.4%):

Our Platform is primarily used by running and multi-sport events to publish participant tracking and timing information in real-time.

Required Purpose (91.6%):

We ensure that any data shared is strictly limited to what is necessary for each vendor to provide their service.

Consent (60.6%):

Your Right to Control <https://rtrt.me/legal/privacy#right-to-control> We offer the following options to control your data: Hide Participant Profile Data: Participants can Claim their profiles and make their participant profile invisible to others.

Art. 17 Right to erasure (right to be forgotten) (79.1%), Retention (65.9%):

Delete Data: You can ask us to erase or delete all or some of your personal data if it is no longer necessary to provide Services to you.

Data Subject (64.5%):

"You", or "your", means you, as a user of our Platform.

Processing (65.9%):

Additionally, since deletion of participant profile would alter the standings for other participants, profiles must be de-identified (made anonymous) or hidden rather than deleted.

Legal Basis (92.5%), Personal Data (84.3%):

Object to, Limit or Restrict Use of Data: You can ask us to stop using all or some of your personal data (e.g., if we have no legal right or obligation to keep using it) or to limit our use of it (e.g., if your personal data is inaccurate or unlawfully held).

Art. 15 Right to access by the data subject (66.7%):

Right to Access and/or Take Your Data: You can ask us for a copy of your personal data and we will provide it in a machine readable form.

Retention (95.8%):

Data Retention <https://rtrt.me/legal/privacy#data-retention> We store your data until it is no longer necessary to provide the Services.

Retention (81.1%):

How long we store data must be determined on a case-by-case basis.

Contract (88.4%), Retention (87.1%):

The duration of retention depends on the nature of the data, why it is collected and processed, and relevant legal, contractual, or operational retention needs.

Retention (83.5%):

As an example, something like a social network "authentication token" is only needed during the event, and is, therefore, deleted after the event.

Personal Data (63.6%), Required Purpose (65.4%), Retention (72.5%):

However, participant profiles and timing data are kept after the event in order to maintain accurate historical event results.

Retention (98.7%):

However, it may take up to 90 days to delete all of your information from our offline backup systems.

Retention (63.1%):

If reasonably necessary to comply with our legal obligations, we may preserve data for legal reasons or to prevent harm, including in the manner described in the How Data Is Shared section.
