

Data Controller (94.0%), Legal Basis (97.4%), Organisational Measure (87.8%), Processing (72.6%), Third Party (76.5%):

Privacy Statement

HansaWorld English Spanish Back Products Overview Standard ERP For Small Business Standard Accounts Standard CRM Standard Hotel Standard Eats Standard POS Digital Office Integrations Industries Retail Hotel and Restaurant Production Rental Project Management Customers Partners Become a Partner Our Partners Partner Portal Login Support Overview FAQ Forum Manuals Health Check MyStandard Customer Agreements Data Security Plans GDPR Making Tax Digital (UK) StandardInstall University Company About Us Careers Newsroom Blog My CEO View Awards Contact Us Privacy Statement This statement is updated to reflect GDPR as of 26 May 2018.

Consent (85.0%), Contract (78.3%), Data Subject (75.9%):

It is not a contract or an agreement, you can not opt in or out.

Data Controller (93.8%), Processing (98.8%):

We collect large amounts of information about companies.

Right (91.1%):

This statement is about these natural persons rights to the information we have about them, and their right to privacy.

Data Controller (97.1%), Personal Data (67.5%):

In this process we also collect some information about natural persons.

Organisational Measure (68.6%):

We encrypt our databases, our communication and our backups to ensure that no one gets unintended access to any information, including information about natural persons.

Organisational Measure (81.0%), Processing (98.4%):

Once we have confirmed your identity and a request is made for information we will aim to send you a copy of what information we have stored in relation to you within 30 days.

Organisational Measure (70.9%):

To be clear, sending us an email or calling us is not a safe and reliable method of identification.

Not Required Purpose (62.6%), Third Party (86.0%):

We take your data safety seriously and will not send your data to your competitor, family members or any random third parties.

Personal Data (89.3%):

Semi Anonymous Data We do not currently store any identifiers such as passport or social security numbers in our registers.

Processing (98.8%):

We will make reasonable effort to start storing such information and we will make reasonable effort to deal with identifying natural persons within the historic information that we have collected since 1988.

Processing (61.9%):

Your Right to be Forgotten If you manage to identify yourself and demand to be forgotten we will make reasonable effort to anonymise or synonymise the data we have about you.

Processing (82.3%):

We will not actually delete any transactions.

Processing (81.2%):

We will just make sure they cannot be traced back to you.

Legal Basis (98.5%):

GDPR does not overrule tax laws, criminal laws and many of other laws.

Third Party (92.6%):

Sharing your Data with Partners We do not give our databases over to companies like Amazon or Facebook that could add our data to their AI processors.

Processing (95.4%), Third Party (71.7%):

However we will share, on a case by case basis, information we have with our business partners.

Not Required Purpose (73.4%):

We will not give out such information unless we are sure you are the person you claim to be.

Consent (64.2%), Not Required Purpose (75.3%):

Your Right not to be Processed We will not, without your explicit permission, use any data we have about you as a natural person for AI processing.

Processing (88.1%):

Any and all data we have can and will be used for business related statistics.

Organisational Measure (95.6%):

Emails We will stop sending marketing and informational mass generated emails.

Automated Decision Making (60.7%), Personal Data (96.0%):

We will continue to send automatically generated emails if they are transactional, like copies of invoices, ID validation or meeting confirmations.

Organisational Measure (65.5%):

We will not ask you to opt in for this kind of emails.

Consent (61.9%):

You will not be given an option to opt out.

Scale EU (78.3%):

This is about our possible future, current and past staff The Treaty of Rome This treaty gives wide ranging rights to EU citizens as professionals.

Processing (84.2%), Required Purpose (89.7%):

This includes using any and all information they might have about other people for most professional purposes.

Right (61.0%):

For example, each human has a right to their own memory.

Legal Basis (83.5%):

We consider the UN Charter of Human rights to have higher legal and moral status than GDPR.

Legal Basis (93.2%):

We consider this treaty to be of higher importance, legally and morally, than GDPR.

Personal Data (99.7%):

What types of personal information do we collect?

Personal Data (76.6%):

In general GDPR is currently very vague and we are expecting it to be clarified but as a company we have always and will continue to work to protect personal information and data security.