With your consent: We use information about you where you have given us consent to do so for a specific purpose not listed above.

Processing (96.9%), Scale Non-EU (88.8%):

International Transfers: TrackingTime is based outside of the EEA and so are many of our third-party service providers so processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of your personal data outside the EEA.

Scale Non-EU (69.6%):

Whenever we transfer your personal data to a third-party outside of the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented: We will transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission; or Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between Europe and the US; or Where we transfer your personal data to a country that the European Commission has not determined provides an adequate level of protection for your personal data and the relevant third party is not a part of the Privacy Shield (if the transfer is to the US), we may use specific contractual clauses approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe.

Processing (93.3%):

Please contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data out of the EEA.

Processing (96.9%):

Corporate Transactions: If TrackingTime or substantially all of its assets are acquired by a third party, personal data held by TrackingTime about its customers will be one of the transferred assets.

Organisational Measure (75.4%), Required Purpose (66.3%), Scale Non-EU (93.8%):

How we store and secure information we collect Information storage and security We use data hosting service providers in the United States, listed at the end of this document, to host the information we collect, and we use technical measures to secure your data.

Processing (96.6%):

While we implement safeguards designed to protect your information, no security system is impenetrable and due to the inherent nature of the Internet, we cannot guarantee that data, during transmission through the Internet or while stored on our systems or otherwise in our care, is absolutely safe from intrusion by others.

Art. 17 Right to erasure (right to be forgotten) (61.6%), Retention (85.6%):

After such time, we will either delete or anonymize your information or, if this is not possible (for example, because the information has been stored in backup archives), then we will securely store your information and isolate it from any further use until deletion is possible.

Processing (87.0%), Retention (66.6%):

Account information We retain your account information for as long as your account is active and 9 months thereafter in case you decide to re-activate the Services.

Required Purpose (90.9%):

Where we retain information for Service improvement and development we only use the information to uncover collective insights about the use of our Services, not to specifically analyze personal characteristics about you.

Required Purpose (97.1%), Retention (61.3%):

Information you share on the Service If your account is deactivated or disabled, some of your information and the content you have provided will remain in order to allow your team members or other users to make full use of the Services.

Retention (94.4%):

Managed accounts If the Services are made available to you through an organization (e.g., your employer), we retain your information as long as required by the administrator of your account.

Consent (78.3%), Required Purpose (72.5%), Retention (86.8%):

Marketing information If you have elected to receive marketing emails from us, we retain information about your marketing preferences for a reasonable period of time from the date you last expressed interest in our Services, such as when you last opened an email from us or ceased using your TrackingTime account.

Retention (95.4%):

We retain information derived from cookies and other tracking technologies for a reasonable period of time from the date such information was created.

Art. 18 Right to restriction of processing (68.4%), Art. 21 Right to object (76.4%), Authority (80.7%), Lodge Complaint (89.0%):

Your Choices You have the right to request a copy of your information, to object to our use of your information (including for marketing purposes), to request the deletion or restriction of your information, or to request your information in a structured, electronic format, the right to have your personal data rectified if it is incorrect, the right to withdraw your consent to processing of your personal data (where the consent is the lawful basis for such processing) and, if the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union applies, the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, which may be the Data Protection Authority in the country where you reside.

Consent (68.7%):

Where the Services are administered for you by an administrator (see "Notice to End Users" below), you may need to contact your administrator to assist with your requests first and we may not be able to give effect to your request if the administrator refuses it.

Organisational Measure (61.3%):

We send you email and in-app notifications when you or others interact with you on the Services, for example, when a task is assigned to you.

Non-Personal Data (76.3%):

Please be aware that deactivating your user account does not delete your information; your information such as tasks, time entries associated to you and task comments remains visible to other Service users based on your past participation within the Services.

Retention (69.8%):

For example, if you believe a Services account was created for you without your permission or you are no longer an active user, you can request that we delete your account as provided in this policy.

Retention (91.3%):

Automatic account deletion In response to the General Data Protection of the European Union we will automatically delete your account and all data associated to it from our production database if the account has been inactive for 9 months.

Personal Data (71.8%):

There will be no record of previous user data.

Organisational Measure (84.1%):

Opt out of communications You may opt out of receiving promotional communications and automated transactional messages from us by using the unsubscribe link within each email, updating your notification preferences within your Service account settings, or by contacting us to have your contact information removed from all promotional and transactional emails.

Processing (87.7%):

Export your account data (Data portability): Data portability is the ability to obtain some of your information in a format you can move from our Services to another.

Non-Personal Data (61.1%):

Should you request it, we will provide you with appropriate files containing all your account data (such as projects, clients, time entries, users, etc.) within 30 days upon receiving your request.

Organisational Measure (74.7%):

Additionally, you can always export your reports in CSV format for backup purposes or to import them into other software applications you use.

Personal Data (98.9%):

If you do not want an administrator to be able to assert control over your account or use of the Services, use your personal email address to register for or access the Services.

Required Purpose (95.8%):

List of TrackingTime Processors/Subprocessors Current as of: May 25, 2018 To support the delivery of the Services, we use different service providers that may store and process personal data about you and users you manage within your TrackingTime account.
