Legal Basis (78.0%), Recipient (86.6%), Third Party (99.2%):

In addition, our Services may link to or otherwise allow you to navigate to properties controlled by third parties.

Data Controller (85.8%), Processing (94.6%):

1 Data controller By data controller, we mean an entity that determines how and why personal data is processed.

Data Controller (91.3%):

With regard to the activities described in this notice, we are the data controller.

Processing (96.8%), Third Party (95.4%):

While operating the Services, we may share your data with partners we work with.

Data Controller (76.5%):

Some of these partners are data controllers independently of us and, therefore, independently determine how and why they process your data.

Data Controller (93.9%):

In this notice, Services refers to our Games, Websites, and any related services or properties we control; Games refers to our games, applications, and other products, including Angry Birds games and many others; and Websites refers to websites and other online properties we control, including <https://www.rovio.com>, <https://www.angrybirds.com>, and <https://www.redsclub.com>.

Required Purpose (88.0%):

We may use your data for various purposes in connection with our Services.

Organisational Measure (63.9%), Personal Data (95.5%), Processing (88.5%), Required Purpose (65.2%):

The expression your data is used when referring to personal data that relates to you as an identified or identifiable individual.

Required Purpose (96.9%):

If you are looking for a summary at a glance, we hope the following is useful: When you use our Services, we process your data in ways that enable us to provide the Services to you (for example, saving your game progress).

Required Purpose (97.2%):

Your data also enables us to provide related services (for example, account services and support), to maintain our Services (for example, by troubleshooting issues you encounter or moderating our Games), and to improve the Services (for example, by running surveys to get your feedback).

Required Purpose (71.3%), Retention (64.1%):

Moreover, we may show ads to you in our Games or advertise our Services to you on third-party properties, and may use your data to make this possible and to make those ads relevant to you.

Required Purpose (89.2%):

From time to time, we may need to use your data for other purposes such as fraud prevention, auditing, or compliance.

Art. 17 Right to erasure (right to be forgotten) (80.6%), Contract (60.9%), Personal Data (83.2%), Processing (66.0%), Required Purpose (90.7%):

To perform our contract with you, we may process your data as necessary to: create and maintain an account for you in our Games or other Services where applicable, enable you to play our Games or use our other Services, provide the correct version of our Games or other Services to you (for example, by selecting an appropriate language version for you), where available, enable you to communicate with other users in our Games or other Services (for example, by providing or managing chat, communities, forums, or other similar features within the Services or on third-party platforms), send you service-related communications (for example, technical notices, security alerts, or administrative messages), or verify and fulfill your purchases or other transactions in our Games or other Services.

Required Purpose (91.8%):

While many sections include a short summary which provides an overview of their content for convenience and ease of reference, we recommend that you read this notice in its entirety.

Legitimate Interest (93.9%), Non-Personal Data (93.5%), Organisational Measure (78.9%), Processing (96.2%), Required Purpose (95.8%):

Based on our legitimate interest to make our Services the best they can be, we may process your data to: operate and maintain our Services (for example, by making sure our Services are secure and function as intended), troubleshoot or debug any bugs, errors, or other issues in our Services, measure and analyze the use of our Services or data we collect through our Services (for example, to discover trends or other insights or to inform our operations), create data that is not identifiable to you (for example, aggregate data), which we may then use and share freely, conduct surveys or other research to learn more about our users, or improve our current Services or develop new Services.

Legitimate Interest (85.9%), Non-Personal Data (86.7%), Required Purpose (87.3%):

Based on our legitimate interest to make sure you have the best possible user experience in our Games, we may process your data to: personalize your gameplay experience in our Games based on your activity, provide you with offers and rewards in our Games based on your activity, where available, enable your gameplay across multiple devices (for example, by allowing you to connect a third-party account with our Games for that purpose), where available, provide social features (for example, clans, matchmaking, or leaderboards) or competitions, promotions, or events in our Games or other Services, handle your support requests or otherwise manage our relationship with you, or send you service-related communications (for example, technical notices, security alerts, or administrative messages).

Automated Decision Making (95.6%), Legitimate Interest (83.8%), Required Purpose (73.5%):

Based on our legitimate interest to make sure our Services are a fair and safe environment for all users or, where applicable, based on a related legal obligation, we may process your data to: ensure that you have access to content and features which are appropriate for you, for example based on your age, moderate and monitor the use of our Games or other Services (including any messages sent through the Services), either automatically or manually, or ensure that our Terms of Service and, in particular, our Code of Conduct are followed.

Non-Personal Data (71.0%), Required Purpose (66.7%), Retention (72.5%):

In addition to this notice, we encourage you to carefully review our Terms of Service, which govern your use of our Services.

Legitimate Interest (91.2%), Processing (60.8%), Third Party (94.1%):

Based on our legitimate interest to promote our Services and to make sure we reach interested audiences, we (and our advertising partners acting on our behalf) may process your data to: keep track of installations of our Games (including the source of each install), measure, analyze, and improve the effectiveness of our advertising (including our advertising outside of our Services), send you communications about offers, rewards, events, or other news related to our Services or other operations, show or not show our ads to you based on your activity (including by limiting the number of times you see our ads), or advertise our Games or other Services to audiences who our advertising partners believe have interests similar to yours.

Legitimate Interest (88.7%), Required Purpose (91.3%):

Based on our legitimate interest to provide you with relevant ads in our Games and to fund our Services so that we can keep providing them to you, we may process your data to: show ads to you in our Games, either from us or our advertising partners, keep track of your activity in our Games to learn about your interests and improve the advertising in our Games, or personalize the ads you see in our Games to make them more relevant to you.

Legal Basis (98.5%), Legitimate Interest (95.1%), Required Purpose (87.9%), Right (73.7%):

Based on our legitimate interest to safeguard our operations, we may process your data to: detect, investigate, or prevent fraud or fraudulent or otherwise unauthorized behavior, audit our operations or processes (for example, to verify that they function as intended and according to regulatory or contractual requirements), or establish, exercise, or defend our legal rights to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations.

Consent (97.0%), Personal Data (88.8%), Required Purpose (92.1%):

With your consent, we may process your data: to share it with our advertising partners (specified when asking for your consent, including for example any of those listed here) for their independent use under their own privacy policies, which may include creating a personalized ads profile about you, selecting personalized ads for you, measuring ad performance, generating audience insights, and other uses, to send you newsletters or other similar communications if you have subscribed to them (for example, when creating an account with us or through a subscription form on our Websites), or for other purposes explained to you when we ask for your consent (for example, using your GPS location to provide location-based experiences).

Not Required Purpose (60.9%):

Where a separate notice is supplied, that notice applies instead.

Processing (75.8%), Required Purpose (91.1%):

It is important that you read this notice before accessing or using the Services so that you are aware of how and why we may use data relating to you.

Authority (94.1%), Legal Basis (83.2%):

Finally, we may process your data as necessary to: comply with legal obligations which we believe apply to us (including accounting and tax requirements, requirements to limit access to our Services, and requirements to provide information to competent authorities upon due request) or protect your vital interests or the vital interests of another person.

Required Purpose (69.1%):

We have also designated a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to oversee our data protection related matters.

Required Purpose (95.3%):

In addition, we may process your data for additional purposes which are compatible with any of the purposes listed above.

Automated Decision Making (91.0%):

We do not use your data to make automated decisions which significantly affect you.

Required Purpose (98.6%), Technical Measure (94.6%):

In both scenarios, we and our advertising partners typically use pseudonymous identifiers related to your device to select ads which are relevant to you, to measure the effectiveness of advertising, and other related purposes.

Processing (97.4%):

Where allowed by applicable laws and regulations, by using the Services you consent to us sharing your data to our advertising partners (listed here) for interest-based advertising and other related purposes.

Organisational Measure (61.5%), Required Purpose (79.0%):

For more information on how we and our advertising partners may use your data for advertising purposes, and how you can control the use of your data for these purposes, please press the plus sign.

Personal Data (92.0%), Processing (71.9%), Technical Measure (84.8%):

Mobile advertising relies on the use of certain online identifiers, in particular Advertising IDs but also IP addresses and other identifiers.

Organisational Measure (97.7%):

You can control the extent to which your Advertising ID is used in this manner.

Consent (94.5%), Organisational Measure (74.2%):

For example, you can choose to not allow apps to request to track on iOS devices or to opt out of interest-based ads on Android devices.

Consent (70.5%), Organisational Measure (92.2%):

Our Games may offer additional options to opt in to or out of advertising related uses of your data.

Non-Personal Data (94.1%), Third Party (92.5%):

When you see ads in our Games, we may share your Advertising ID and IP address, along with information about the game and your device, with our advertising partners.

Not Required Purpose (67.4%):

In each case, they may use your data for a number of purposes, including to limit the number of times you see an ad or to personalize the ads you see to make them more relevant to you (for example, based on the past activity they have associated with your Advertising ID).

Third Party (94.5%):

Ad networks may also use your data to: limit the number of times you see our ads, inform users who have previously played our Games about new content, updates, or other news related to those Games, or refrain from showing our ads to users who already play the Game being advertised.

Required Purpose (63.5%):

For more information on these partners and the ways in which they may process your data, please refer to section 6 of this notice.

Technical Measure (94.3%), Third Party (88.6%):

In addition, ad networks may provide services where they use Advertising IDs or other identifiers to find users who are likely to be interested in our Services because their past activity or interests are similar to those of others known by the ad network to use our Services.

Non-Personal Data (95.2%), Processing (91.8%):

For both ads in our Games and our ads outside of our Services, Advertising IDs or other identifiers are also used for ad measurement, which involves the collection of metrics such as views, clicks, or installs generated by an ad.

Non-Personal Data (81.3%), Processing (98.8%):

This measurement data may be directly or indirectly collected or received by multiple parties involved in ad delivery (including us and our advertising partners), for example through technologies such as conversion pixels inserted into ads.

Required Purpose (98.6%):

It is used for purposes such as to provide measurement services, to detect, investigate and prevent fraud or fraudulent behavior, or to settle payments between the parties involved in ad delivery.

Technical Measure (99.2%):

3.2 Cookies and similar technologies on our Websites Like most websites today, our Websites may use cookies or similar technologies (for example, local shared objects or web beacons).

Third Party (97.8%):

Cookies can be set by either the website you visit (first-party cookies) or a third party involved in providing content, functionality, or services such as analytics or advertising for the website you visit (third-party cookies).

Required Purpose (97.0%):

Cookies are typically used to identify or remember your device, for example to enable functionality, facilitate audience measurement, improve performance, or store your preferences.

Consent (61.8%), Technical Measure (81.3%):

When you visit our Websites, you may be prompted to make a choice regarding cookies.

Consent (84.1%), Processing (95.0%):

These cookies will be used and stored on your device independent of your choices regarding other types of cookies.

Organisational Measure (96.6%):

You can also control the use of cookies using your browser or device settings, for example by disabling some or all cookies or configuring your browser or device to notify you when cookies are being set.

Required Purpose (96.0%):

When you access and use our Services, we may collect information you submit to us or through the Services, for example when creating an account, sending messages in the Games, or contacting us for support.

Required Purpose (96.8%):

If you have any questions or concerns about the way we use your data, you may contact our DPO by email at dpo@rovio.com.

Technical Measure (66.7%):

We may also automatically collect information about your use of the Services and the device you use to access the Services, including identifiers such as an Advertising ID.

Consent (75.6%), Data Source (84.2%), Non-Personal Data (88.2%), Personal Data (95.4%),

Required Purpose (98.4%), Third Party (79.8%):

We may process the following data relating to you: your name, email address, or other contact information if you have provided them to us (for example, when creating an account with us or subscribing to our communications), your age or information about when you were born, online identifiers such as your in-game alias, IP address, identifiers we assign to your account, or hardware or operating system based identifiers including your Advertising ID, technical information about the device you use to play our Games or use our other Services (for example, information about its type, model, manufacturer, operating system, language, display, processor, or memory), your coarse location (for example, country, state, or city), inferred from your IP address, information about your use of the Services (for example, information about your progress or purchases in our Games or other Services, your use of an account you have with us, your visits to our Websites, or your interactions with ads in our Games), information about your interactions with our ads outside of the Services (for example, on third-party websites or applications), including information on how you were referred to our Games or other Services, crash logs or other information related to bugs, errors, or other issues you encounter in our Services, inferences we make based on your activity in our Services (for example, about the content you might enjoy), messages or other communications you send to us or through the Services or related communities managed by us on third-party platforms (for example, your chat messages in our Games, emails you send to our support team, or messages you post to official community groups for the Games), if you choose to connect a third-party account (for example, a social media account) with our Services, information we receive from the third-party account provider (for example, an account name, identifier, or email address to enable cross-device gameplay or a profile name, picture, or friends information to provide social features), if you make purchases in our Games or other Services, information we receive from third-party payment service providers to validate those purchases (note that we do not receive your credit card or other payment method information when you make purchases in our Services), if you have subscribed to our communications, your content preferences or other information you submit to us when subscribing to our communications, if you participate in our surveys or other research, any comments, feedback, responses, or other information you provide to us when doing so (for example, information about your background or experience with our Games), information about your choices regarding your data (for example, any consents you may have given or withdrawn), any other information you choose to submit to us through our Services or otherwise, and with your consent, other information explained to you when asking for your consent (for example, your GPS location for location-based experiences).

Personal Data (75.0%):

When you see our ads outside of our Services, we may collect information about your interactions with those ads.

Personal Data (99.2%):

By special categories of data, we mean genetic, biometric or health information, information revealing racial or ethnic origin, sex life or sexual orientation, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or trade union membership, or information about your criminal offences or convictions.

Data Source (83.4%):

Primarily, we collect data directly from you or your device when you use our Services.

Third Party (88.9%):

However, we may also receive data about you from other companies, for example third-party login providers if you choose to use them, companies that facilitate the purchases you make in our Games, or advertising partners involved in delivering our ads to you outside of the Services.

Processing (96.4%), Third Party (75.8%):

We may collect data relating to you from the following sources: directly from you when you submit it to us (for example, when registering an account with us, subscribing to our communications, sending support enquiries to us, or responding to our surveys), directly from you and/or your device by automatic means when you use our Services or interact with our ads outside of our Services (for example, on third-party websites or applications), including through cookies or similar technologies or software development kits (SDKs), companies that distribute or publish our Games, which may include both companies in the Rovio group and third parties (for example, platform operators), if you interact with ads in our Games or our ads outside of our Services (for example, on third-party websites or applications), from our advertising partners involved in the delivery and measurement of those ads, if you choose to connect a third-party account (for example, a social media account) with our Services, from the third-party account provider, if you participate in official community groups for our Games on third-party platforms, from those community groups or the platform provider, if you make purchases in our Games or other Services, from the third-party payment service provider involved in those transactions, or with your consent, from other sources explained to you when asking for your consent.

Processing (77.3%):

It is consistent across applications installed on the device, even if those applications are from different publishers.

Third Party (60.4%):

Please consider that this notice does not apply to properties controlled by third parties and that the operators of those properties may collect and use your data following their own policies.

Organisational Measure (84.6%):

If you use our Services, we will collect data relating to you for some or all of the purposes described in this notice, depending on the Services you decide to use and your choices when using them.

Organisational Measure (91.7%):

You have a number of options to limit or control the extent to which your data is processed.

Organisational Measure (95.5%):

For example, you can choose to not connect your third-party accounts with our Games (or to utilize the privacy settings of those third-party services to control the extent to which your data is shared to us), to use options provided to you in our Games to manage your preferences regarding the use of your data for advertising purposes, to use your device settings to reset or control the use of your Advertising ID or to toggle features such as push notifications or location tracking, or disable some or all cookies from your browser settings.

Processing (97.6%):

As we operate the Services globally, your data is likely to be transferred to and/or processed in countries other than your home country when you access or use our Services.

Required Purpose (68.4%):

We may share your data with third parties to achieve the purposes described in this notice.

Authority (93.1%), Third Party (80.0%):

This may include sharing data with the following types of recipients: other companies in the Rovio group, for example where they help us develop or operate our Games or other Services, persons or companies outside of the Rovio group that provide services to us and process data on our behalf when providing those services (for example, providers of hosting services, analytics services, services that add functionality to the Services, or other services that help us develop and operate our Services), payment service providers that facilitate payments for purchases made in our Games or Services and may process your data (including your payment method information) independently of us, other partners we work with while providing the Services (who may process your data independently of us), including advertising partners and others listed here, prospective or actual buyers (including their agents or advisors) in the context of a planned or actual acquisition, merger, or other business restructuring, competent courts of law or other government authorities where we believe disclosure is necessary as a matter of applicable law or regulation, any person or entity where we believe disclosure is necessary to exercise, establish or defend our legal rights or to protect your or another persons vital interests, or with any other person or entity with your consent.

Non-Personal Data (97.8%):

This typically applies to, for example, your public profile information in our Games (such as your in-game alias), your chat messages in our Games, and information used to provide social features such as clans or leaderboards.

Scale Non-EU (79.1%):

For example, a number of servers we use for hosting data are located in the United States, and some of our group companies or the service providers we use to provide the Services may be located outside of the EU and the EEA.

Scale EU (71.1%):

We may transfer your data outside of the European Union (EU) and the European Economic Area (EEA).

Legal Basis (95.3%):

These countries may have data protection laws that differ from the laws of your home country.

Required Purpose (91.7%):

We will keep your data for as long as necessary to achieve the purpose(s) for which it was collected, including to provide you with the Services or to comply with any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

Organisational Measure (89.2%), Retention (79.6%):

After the applicable retention period, we will either delete or de-identify your data or, if neither deletion or de-identification is possible (for example, due to data being stored on a backup server), isolate your data from further processing until deletion or de-identification is possible.

Organisational Measure (89.6%):

We have adopted measures to provide your data a level of security appropriate for the degree of risk involved with the processing activities described in this notice.

Organisational Measure (77.4%):

These measures are designed to protect your data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, or alteration as well as unauthorized disclosure or access.

Organisational Measure (92.5%):

The specific measures we employ vary, but typically include, for example, encryption in transit, pseudonymization of identifying data where feasible, controls to limit access to services or systems that contain personal data, and maintaining procedures to handle any suspected security incidents.

Right (91.1%):

9 Your rights You have a number of rights to your data under applicable laws and regulations.

Right (90.4%):

If we are processing your data, you may ask to use these rights.

Art. 21 Right to object (74.0%), Legitimate Interest (90.3%):

If we are processing your data, you have the right to: access, correct, or request the deletion of your data, request us to restrict our processing of your data, object to our processing of your data to the extent our processing is based on our legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party, or where technically feasible, request a copy of the personal data you have provided to us in machine-readable format.

Data Source (84.8%):

An Advertising ID is an alphanumeric string of digits typically provided by a device or its operating system.

Consent (92.9%):

Where our processing of your data is based on your consent, you also have the right to withdraw your consent at any time.

Consent (70.1%):

Please be aware that we may continue processing your data despite your withdrawal of consent, if we have a lawful basis for doing so.

Required Purpose (81.1%):

This helps us validate, process, and fulfill your request more quickly and reliably.

Technical Measure (68.4%):

To access your data in our Games or to request its deletion, please use the automatic tools provided in our Games.

Organisational Measure (62.1%):

If you have created an account with us for use across our Games, automatic tools to access data associated with the account or to request its deletion are provided through the account settings.

Required Purpose (95.6%):

For example, we may ask you to provide sufficiently detailed information about the account to which the request relates to enable us to confirm that you are the account holder or acting on their behalf.

Lodge Complaint (71.9%):

Finally, you always have the right to lodge a complaint with your local data protection authority (such as the Office of the Data Protection Ombudsman in Finland) regarding our processing of your data.

Data Processor (70.0%):

Note that if your request relates to information about a payment method or other transactional data about a purchase made in our Games or other Services, you should directly contact the payment service provider through which you made the payment, as they will have processed the transaction independently of us.

Legal Basis (96.6%), Right (88.2%), Scale Non-EU (63.5%):

10 Region-specific information 10.1 California residents If you are a California resident, please be aware that under the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended (CCPA), you are entitled to receive specific information on how we process your data.

Right (82.7%):

You also have specific rights to your data, including the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information.

Scale Non-EU (85.7%):

10.2 South Korea residents If you are a resident of the Republic of Korea, please review our Supplemental Privacy Disclosure for South Korea Residents in addition to this notice.

Organisational Measure (80.0%):

If we discover that you are a minor or do not meet an age threshold we apply, we may take steps to limit, suspend, or terminate your access to the Services where we believe that to be necessary due to applicable regulatory or platform requirements or to provide you with an appropriate experience.

Required Purpose (69.6%):

This notice applies to all our Services, unless a separate notice is supplied with a particular Game or other Service.

Legal Basis (87.3%), Organisational Measure (79.1%), Required Purpose (79.5%):

If your access to the Services is not suspended or terminated, we will limit the use of your personal data to what is necessary for the internal operation of our Services and other uses permitted by applicable laws, regulations, and platform policies.

Organisational Measure (76.0%):

This may include removing access to certain parts or features of the Services.

Organisational Measure (61.3%):

12 Changes We may update this notice from time to time, for example due to changes in our operations or the legal obligations that apply to us.

Organisational Measure (62.6%):

Updates will be made available here.

Organisational Measure (78.2%):

We may also inform you of any changes by other means that are appropriate to the significance of the changes.

Consent (88.0%):

By subscribing, you agree to receive emails from us.
