Organisational Measure (87.5%), Required Purpose (73.0%):

Protecting Personal and Protected Health Information To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and ensure the appropriate use of the information we collect, we deploy a wide range of technical, physical, and administrative safeguards, including: Transport Layer Security (TLS), firewalls, system alerts, and other information system security technologies; housing health data in secure facilities that restrict physical and network access; and regular evaluation and enhancement of our information technology systems, facilities, and information collection, storage, and processing practices.

Organisational Measure (83.5%):

We use reasonable and appropriate administrative, physical, technical, and data security procedures and controls to safeguard your personal and protected health information against unauthorized access, disclosure, loss, misuse, and alteration.

Legal Basis (91.4%), Organisational Measure (81.2%), Personal Data (69.2%), Processing (99.2%):

Under applicable law, we are required to apply reasonable and appropriate measures to safeguard the confidentiality, integrity and availability of Protected Health Information (PHI), as such term is defined by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (collectively referred to herein as HIPAA), residing on and processed by our sites and services.

Required Purpose (86.8%):

We use third-party service providers to manage credit card and payment processing.

Personal Data (96.8%), Processing (80.5%), Required Purpose (76.8%):

These service providers are not permitted to store, retain, or use billing Information except for the sole purpose of credit card and payment processing on our behalf.

Organisational Measure (71.1%), Personal Data (97.6%), Processing (98.3%):

When you enter payment information to be processed by our third party service providers, we encrypt the transmission of that information using transport layer security (TLS) technology and do not store it on our systems.

Processing (99.0%):

Accordingly, we cannot guarantee the security of information stored on or transmitted to or from our services.

Personal Data (93.8%):

You are ultimately responsible for maintaining the secrecy for all your personal information, including your protected health information.

Contract (77.5%):

Except as provided in a Business Associate Agreement between us and a healthcare provider, we have no responsibility or liability to anyone for the security of your personal or protected health information transmitted via the Internet.

Third Party (99.2%):

Linked Websites and Services Our sites and services may link to other sites or services operated by our affiliates or third parties, and may carry advertisements or offer content, functionality, newsletters, contests or sweepstakes, or applications developed and maintained by third parties.

Third Party (97.7%):

We do not exercise control over third party sites or services.

Contract (72.6%), Required Purpose (88.9%):

Accordingly, we may only use and disclose your PHI on behalf of, or to provide services to, your healthcare provider according to the terms of the Business Associate Agreement.

Contract (65.4%):

There are exceptions to this use and disclosure restriction.

Processing (68.2%), Required Purpose (99.1%):

Under such exceptions, we may use and disclose your PHI (i) for our internal management and administration; (ii) to carry out our legal obligations; and (iii) to perform data aggregation services for your healthcare provider and other healthcare providers; provided that, any disclosures for our internal management and administration or to carry out our legal obligations are either required by law or made after we obtain reasonable assurances from the party to whom the PHI is disclosed that such PHI will be held confidentially and used or further disclosed only as required by law or for the purpose for which it was disclosed to such party.

Non-Personal Data (70.4%), Right (63.9%):

As a Business Associate, we may be permitted to de-identify your PHI.

Organisational Measure (62.7%):

We de-identify PHI in accordance with the criteria prescribed by HIPAA.

Art. 18 Right to restriction of processing (67.3%), Right (71.9%):

These rights generally include the right to restrict the uses and disclosures of your PHI, the right to access and receive a copy of your PHI, the right to amend your PHI, and the right to receive an accounting of the disclosures of your PHI.

Legal Basis (79.9%), Retention (92.7%):

In either case, certain users, such as healthcare providers, may be required by HIPAA and other applicable laws or regulations to retain such information for extended periods of time.

Contract (69.8%):

Most of our Business Associate Agreements require us and our subcontractors to either return or destroy PHI received or created pursuant to the business associate relationship upon the termination of the Business Associate Agreement.

Processing (68.7%):

Accordingly, if the Business Associate Agreement between us and your healthcare provider has been terminated, then any PHI that you submitted to our sites and services, or otherwise maintained by us or a subcontractor in connection with our sites and services, will be returned to the healthcare provider or destroyed by us or such subcontractor.

Organisational Measure (71.4%):
