When does Forsta process my data?

Personal Data (98.3%), Right (69.6%):

There are two types of situations in which we may process your personal data.

Data Subject (87.4%), Processing (95.7%):

If you would no longer like to be contacted by one of our customers that use our services, please contact the customer directly.

Data Source (71.9%), Non-Personal Data (60.5%), Personal Data (94.5%):

In these cases, please be aware that it is our customers who are initiating or performing the data collection, who determine from whom to collect personal data, and who define how to use the collected personal data.

Processing (96.7%):

In these cases, Forsta will process any and all personal data uploaded to or collected via the SaaS by our customers.

Consent (90.3%), Organisational Measure (80.0%), Personal Data (84.3%):

However, Forsta intends to process such personal data with appropriate and adequate safeguards to prevent unauthorized breach or use.

Processing (99.6%):

Our role as a processor In relation to our roles as SaaS provider and data processor, Forsta processes information under the instructions of its customers and has no direct relationship with the individuals whose personal data Forsta collects or processes on behalf of its customer.

For purposes of complying with data privacy laws throughout the EEA, Switzerland, the UK, and other jurisdictions, where Forsta transfers personal data to an entity which is outside of the EEA and organized in a jurisdiction which has not received an adequacy decision or similar, from the jurisdiction from which the data is being transferred, Forsta makes such transfers only if subject to an adequate transfer mechanism as described by applicable data privacy law, e.g., standard data protection clauses.

Contract (75.9%), Retention (95.0%):

We will retain personal data our customers have instructed us to process for them for as long as needed to provide services to our customers in accordance with the contractual terms in our agreements with them.

Retention (62.1%):

Our customers can at any time instruct for such personal data to be updated, exported, deleted, or as otherwise required.

Retention (94.6%):

Forsta will retain personal data as necessary to comply with our legal obligations, resolve disputes, and in accordance with our customer agreements.

Organisational Measure (69.9%):

Security measures Forsta operates under a strong security and privacy regime.

Organisational Measure (68.7%), Processing (97.1%), Technical Measure (68.0%):

If your personal data is stored on Forstas SaaS environments, you are welcome to read more about how we protect your personal data by applying the appropriate technical and organizational measures (TOMS), at the following link.

Automated Decision Making (71.7%), Non-Personal Data (98.4%), Personal Data (64.0%):

Device information When you download and use mobile apps produced by Forsta, at the instruction of our customers we automatically collect information on the type of device you use, operating system version, and where applicable, the device identifier (or UDID).

Personal Data (99.0%):

However, our customers who are using our mobile apps in order to collect personal data from you may request that the mobile apps collect your precise geolocation.

Consent (78.9%):

You can accept or reject that request.

Consent (66.8%):

The mobile apps do not require location permission in order to be used.

Technical Measure (97.4%):

Depending on our customers use of the mobile app, the mobile app may also use beacons or similar technologies as part of the survey taking.

Recipient (67.6%), Technical Measure (98.1%):

Cookies and Tracking Technologies on the SaaS environment At the instruction of our customers, we and our service providers use cookies, web beacons, scripts, eTags, local storage (HTML5) or similar tracking technologies.

Required Purpose (99.6%):

These technologies are used on the SaaS environment to provide you with a better user experience, including to authenticate users of, or personalize the content on the SaaS website or online service.

Processing (81.7%), Required Purpose (96.5%):

They are also used to preserve functionality in our SaaS platforms, such as monitoring of network communications, maintain or analyse the functioning of the SaaS website or online service, protect the security or integrity of the user, SaaS website or online service.

Consent (91.2%):

You can control the use of cookies at the individual browser level, but if you choose to disable cookies, it may limit your use of certain features or functions on the SaaS environment.

Organisational Measure (91.6%):

We follow generally recognized industry standards and all legally required measures to protect the personal data submitted to us during transmission and once it is received.

Personal Data (91.3%):

In general, you can visit Forsta on the Internet without telling us who you are and without giving any personal data about yourself, except that we may log IP address and geolocation.

Legitimate Interest (92.6%), Personal Data (93.4%):

There are times, however, when Forsta or our partners may request additional personal data from you to serve legitimate purposes.

Data Controller (80.6%):

Our customers are often called data controllers in such case.

Personal Data (87.4%), Required Purpose (90.4%):

Forsta will act as a data controller where, for example, you visit our websites and provide us with your contact details to obtain access to resources, or where we store your details as part of our management of accounts you have with us in your role as a customer.

Personal Data (89.3%):

For example, you may want to give us information such as your name, physical address, email address, zip code, resume, phone number, and additional contact information.

Consent (89.7%):

We intend to let you know how we will use such information and seek your consent when required by applicable laws before we collect it from you.

Processing (97.8%):

For the first type, Forsta acts as on behalf of its customers, meaning we do not determine the purpose or means of the processing ourselves and instead our customers do (usually as a software-as-a-service (SaaS) provider for companies conducting data collection and reporting activities via the Internet or mobile apps).

Required Purpose (86.1%):

Forsta will also act as data controller when processing personal data for administrative and operational purposes related to our provision to customers of services under agreements we have with them.

Processing (99.6%), Required Purpose (84.6%):

Processing of such personal data will serve administrative and operational purposes such as account management, product improvement, invoicing and financial reporting, data protection and cybersecurity, and complying with our legal obligations.

Personal Data (98.4%):

Forsta does not request the disclosure of special categories of personal data or sensitive data.

Right (67.8%):

You may contact Forsta in order to invoke your rights as a data subject under applicable laws in accordance with section 6 below.

Scale EU (88.8%):

Data Controller (93.5%):

Surveys launched by Forstas customers may be hosted on Forstas SaaS environments, or alternatively they may be hosted on the customers own servers.

Organisational Measure (71.3%), Required Purpose (76.6%), Third Party (66.3%):

The purposes of the processing are either stated in the consent note we obtain from you prior to processing your personal data, or alternatively: To fulfill your transaction request; To provide you with a subscription; To provide you with support and consulting services; To verify your identity; To provide information on products, services, or callback requests; To send you specific marketing materials; To allow our business partners to contact you for marketing purposes; In connection with a job application or inquiry; To contact you about employment consideration; and To invite you to complete web surveys.

Legal Basis (97.2%), Legitimate Interest (79.5%):

The legal basis for these purposes detailed in 4.B.c above is legitimate interests.

Recipient (91.9%), Third Party (96.5%):

The recipients of your personal data will be selected Forsta employees and third parties such as affiliates, hosting providers, web-based software tool providers, and contractors working for Forsta.

Legal Basis (99.3%):

All such recipients will always be under contract with Forsta ensuring data protection levels equivalent to those set forth in this privacy notice and required by applicable law.

Recipient (75.6%):

You may be submitting responses to web surveys or app surveys via mobile devices, and the template of the survey may state Powered by Forsta or similar.

Authority (79.2%), Contract (63.2%):

Where personal data collected in the EEA, UK, or Switzerland is transferred to a subcontractor in a third country outside of these areas and such country is not deemed to meet the adequacy standards of the relevant regulatory body, Forsta shall have ensured adequate safeguards with such subcontractor both technically and contractually.

Retention (96.2%):

Data Retention We will retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary in accordance with the purpose of the processing as communicated to you as part of the consent or privacy notice.

Retention (97.7%):

We will retain personal data we process about our customers for as long as needed to provide services to our customers in accordance with the contractual terms in our agreements with them.

Retention (94.4%):

Forsta will retain such personal data as necessary to comply with our legal obligations and to resolve disputes.

Organisational Measure (82.9%), Personal Data (99.7%):

When we have no ongoing legitimate purpose to process your personal information, we will either delete or anonymize it.

Organisational Measure (78.4%):

In cases where your personal information has been stored in backup archives, we will securely store your personal information, isolate it from any further processing and anonymize or delete it as soon as possible.

Consent (77.7%):

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw such consent at any time as set forth in section 5 below.

Authority (86.5%), Lodge Complaint (80.7%):

Where applicable laws so prescribe, you have the right to lodge a complaint to a supervisory authority.

Required Purpose (98.2%):

We may use information provided on that site to administer and develop our business relationship with you, the business partner you represent, and Forsta business partners generally.

Required Purpose (92.7%):

We may use information provided on that site to administer and develop our business relationship with you, the customer for which you work, and Forsta customers generally.

Contract (62.9%), Legal Basis (95.5%), Processing (76.7%):

We may also collect and process your personal data as necessary for the performance of the contract in place between the Forsta customer and Forsta in accordance with applicable data privacy laws.

Scale Non-EU (75.2%):

We may share your personal data within Forsta, or with service providers and transfer it to countries in the world where we or our service providers do business.

Processing (90.2%):

Transfers of your personal data between the Forsta group of companies are made subject to intra-group personal data transfer agreements which include the use of appropriate transfer mechanisms.

Processing (94.4%):

In such countries, Forsta will handle information in the manner we describe in this privacy notice.

Personal Data (75.9%):

Some countries may provide less legal protection for your information.

Required Purpose (92.2%):

Sharing with Services Providers and Business Partners Service Providers We may share your information with third parties who provide services on our behalf to help with our business activities under contractual terms providing adequate protection to your information.

Contract (69.2%):

These services may include: Sending marketing communications Fulfilling subscription services Conducting research and analysis Providing data center facilities Before we share personal information, we enter into written agreements with recipients which contain data protection terms that safeguard your data.

Automated Decision Making (73.5%):
