Personal Data (97.6%), Processing (72.6%):

Specifically: If you are a Client (for example: a School that is our Client), then an explanation of what information we collect about you and your End Users, and how we collect it, can be found below in the section 2.A titled Personal Information from Schools and Under School Accounts; or If you are an End User (for example: a teacher, staff, student, parent, or guardian added to the Services by a School), then information we collect about you is provided either (1) by the School that added you to the Services and manages your use of the Services, (2) by you when you use the Services, or (3) by another End User using the Services under the account of your School.

Consent (98.5%), Data Source (72.1%), Data Subject (83.6%), Required Purpose (65.5%), Third Party (60.5%):

In this Policy we call education institutions and organizations Schools. This Policy applies to all of our products and services, including new or additional products and services that we may develop or offer in the future.

Third Party (67.5%):

An explanation of what information we collect about you and how we collect it can be found below in the section 2.A titled Personal Information from Schools and Under School Accounts; or If you are a Visitor (for example: an individual browsing a public part of the Sites that does not require a log-in or an invitation from a Client) and you do not use the Services as an End User, then an explanation of what information we collect about you and how we collect it can be found below in the section 2.B titled Visitor Personal information. Please note that our Clients are Schools and other government entities.

Data Source (65.4%), Data Subject (83.6%):

We do not currently offer or provide Client accounts to individuals, including End Users or Visitors.

Data Subject (78.8%):

This means that Apptegy does not have direct relationships with individual end users of the Services.

Personal Data (94.5%), Processing (93.9%), Required Purpose (90.5%):

A few examples of when this may happen include: a School creates School-Created User Accounts for teachers, staff, parents, guardians, and students under the Schools Client account, and includes personal information in the School-Created User Accounts; a School administrator, under her or his School-Created User Account, uses the Services to update School-Created User Accounts, and includes personal information in her or his updates; a School principal, under her or his School-Created User Account, uses the Services to publish a communication via Thrillshare Media that includes personal information; a School teacher, under her or his School-Created User Account, uses the Services to send classroom communications via Thrillshare Rooms that includes personal information; a School student, under her or his School-Created User Account, uses the Services to upload and submit classroom content and assignments via Thrillshare Rooms that includes personal information; a parent or guardian of a School student, under her or his School-Created User Account, uses the Services to communicate with a teacher via Thrillshare Rooms, and includes personal information in her or his communications; or a School staff member interacts with Apptegy team members to request technical support for the Schools Client account, and includes personal information in her or his communications.

Processing (99.6%):

In all of these instances, (i) the School determines and controls what personal information it provides to us for its School-Created User Accounts, (ii) the School determines and controls what personal information can be provided to us by End Users using the Services under the School-Created User Accounts; and (iii) the School determines and controls how personal information is and can be used once it is collected from the School and End Users under the Schools Client account.

Required Purpose (89.7%):

And your School is the party responsible for determining the purpose, scope, and means of the personal information we collect about you, and whether and how it is used via our Services.

Organisational Measure (82.6%):

We implement safeguards to protect against the loss, disclosure, alteration, or misuse of personal information that is in our care or custody.

Personal Data (99.6%):

We protect all personal information in our care or custody with at least the degree of care that would be exercised by a prudent person given the sensitivity of the personal information.

Personal Data (69.1%), Processing (91.7%), Required Purpose (82.5%):

This means we only carry out and process, via our Services, the activities of and instructions of your School (and End Users using the Services under School-Created User Accounts).

Processing (98.7%):

In all of these circumstances, Apptegy is only a data processor.

Required Purpose (88.9%):

For example, if you request a copy of the personal information we hold about you in order to provide the Services, we will direct you to your School for that information.

Processing (99.1%):

We also collect personal information that Schools include in the communications, messages, announcements, videos, assignments, materials, electronic signature requests, and other content, documents, and information published, uploaded, managed, stored, and/or sent via the Services.

Processing (93.6%), Required Purpose (71.3%):

All End User accounts are controlled and managed by the Client that creates them.

Consent (81.6%), Data Subject (92.6%):

Processing (78.1%), Required Purpose (98.7%):

However, please note that certain information is required to use and enjoy the Services.

Consent (89.1%), Personal Data (98.3%), Required Purpose (82.5%), Third Party (99.2%):

Personal information provided for accounts may include: Contact details User ID School ID Profile information Contact address Contact phone number Email address Log-in Information Password Billing/Payment Information Communication preferences Employment position (for School employee and contractor Users) Other information a School or User uploads Other information necessary or helpful to provide the Services to the Client Personal information from third parties.

Required Purpose (98.2%):

We collect certain information from third parties to measure and improve our Services, and to improve the experience of our Clients and Users.

Not Required Purpose (60.5%), Required Purpose (61.5%):

For example, we collect information about how our marketing and promotional campaigns have performed (see Section 4 for more information about marketing and advertising activities).

Required Purpose (98.7%):

Personal information from third parties may include: Analytics and usage data IP addresses Pages on the Services that are viewed As explained above, the personal information we collect from Schools and End Users is under the direct control of the School, and we only collect personal information that is reasonably necessary to provide the Services requested by the Client and its End Users.

Processing (96.5%):

Not all categories will be collected or received for every individual.

Personal Data (86.3%):

Except as set out in these policies, we do not collect or scrape additional personal information from the computers, contacts, email accounts, or other personal sources of Users.

Non-Personal Data (82.8%):

For example, we collect information about the individual pages that are viewed, the features and functions that are used and how they are used, and other information about how Visitors interact with the Services.

Non-Personal Data (82.7%):

We also collect information about what web browsers, devices, and IP addresses are used to access the Services, and the general geolocation of that access (but not precise geolocation).

Personal Data (88.1%):

Please also note that if you choose to contact us (for example: send us a message via the email or chat function on the Sites), we collect the personal information that you give us (for example: name, phone number, email address, IP address, and anything you include in the body of your message).

Consent (72.5%), Required Purpose (98.1%):

How We Use and Disclose Your Information We use and disclose personal information solely for the purpose of providing and improving our Services to and for our Clients and Users.

Not Required Purpose (73.1%), Processing (95.4%):

We do not sell or otherwise monetize personal information by selling or sharing it with third parties.

Required Purpose (95.1%):

Specifically, we use and disclose personal information in the following ways: To provide and operate our Services: We may use and disclose personal information when we are directed or instructed to do so by a Client or an End User under a School-Created User Account.

Consent (69.6%), Legal Basis (96.8%), Processing (80.1%), Required Purpose (99.0%):

A few examples of when this may happen include: when a School uploads information to setup its Client account, or when a School creates, maintains, and updates School-Created User Accounts, or when an End User posts a communication on the Services that includes personal information; As you direct or consent: We may use and disclose personal information when you direct or instruct us to do so, or otherwise provide your consent (for example: when you choose to include personal information in materials you upload to the Services, or when you include personal information in a support request to us); To enable and transmit social media messages: We may use and disclose personal information to enable and transmit social media messages via the Services (for example: when an End User uses the Services to publish a communication to Facebook, Twitter, and other social media channels); To enable and transmit email messages: We may use and disclose personal information to enable and transmit email messages via the Services (for example: when a School uses the Services to send an email message to students); To enable and transmit SMS/MMS/Mobile messages: We may use and disclose personal information to enable and transmit SMS/MMS and other mobile messages via the Services (for example: when a School uses the Services to send an SMS message to parents and guardians); To enable and transmit voice and VOIP messages: We may use and disclose personal information to enable and transmit voice/VOIP and other audible messages via the Services (for example: when a School uses the Services to send a voice message to parents and guardians); To maintain security and availability of the Services: We may use and disclose personal information to ensure the security and availability of the Services (for example: when we perform system and database evaluations and tests); For legal purposes: We may use and disclose personal information (i) to comply with applicable laws, regulations, court orders, legal processes, or to respond to any government, agency, or regulatory request, (ii) to detect or otherwise manage fraud, security, or technical issues, (iii) to protect the safety, rights, or property of any person, the public, or Apptegy, or (iv) to enforce our rights arising from agreements with Clients and Users, including our Terms of Use, and for billing and collection purposes; To contact you about Services: If you are a School or a teacher or staff member with a School-Created User Account, we may use and disclose personal information to contact you about other Apptegy Services that may be of interest to you.

Required Purpose (95.0%):

We will not contact School-Created User Accounts that we know are parents, guardians, or students about other Apptegy Services; To contact you about resources and events: If you are a School or a teacher or staff member with a School-Created User Account, we may use and disclose personal information to contact you about other Apptegy resources and events that may be of interest to you (for example: webinars and the publication of new educational materials).

Organisational Measure (61.5%), Processing (98.5%), Recipient (93.4%), Required Purpose (99.5%), Technical Measure (95.7%), Third Party (91.9%):

We will not contact School-Created User Accounts that we know are parents, guardians, or students about other resources or events; For account servicing and maintenance: We may use and disclose personal information to help us service, maintain, and support User accounts (for example: billing or technical support, and product updates); To measure and improve client engagement: We may use and/or disclose personal information to help us measure and improve engagement with Users (for example: we use Google Analytics to help us understand how our users use our Services you can read more about how Google uses our information here: <https://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/> and you can also opt-out of Google Analytics here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>; we also use Pendo to help us understand how our users use our Services you can read more about how Pendo uses our information here: <https://www.pendo.io/legal/privacy-policy/>); and For corporate business purposes: We may use and disclose personal information (a) to our current or future parent company, affiliates, subsidiaries, and other companies under common control and ownership, or (b) to a buyer or other successor in connection with, or during negotiations for, a merger, acquisition, reorganization, or other sale or transfer of our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding.

Organisational Measure (69.9%), Required Purpose (94.5%):

We may use and disclose personal information with and to third parties when it is necessary to provide the Services or for our business (for example: to complete any of the foregoing activities; or when we need to process payments from Clients; or when we translate content that includes personal information from English into other languages; or when we comply with appropriate security standards).

Organisational Measure (97.6%):

We will limit the personal information we provide to third parties as much as possible, and we will condition our sharing of that personal information on strict confidentiality restrictions and security instructions as often as possible.

Third Party (91.6%):

Consent (82.1%):

Please note that some personal information provided by Schools and End Users on the Services may be viewable by the public generally (for example: a School message posted on Facebook via Thrillshare Media); and some personal information provided by Schools and End Users on the Services may be viewable by other Users (for example: a message posted on a group message via Thrillshare Rooms where other School-Created User Accounts in the Room have permission to view).

Organisational Measure (94.7%), Required Purpose (85.4%):

When we use and/or disclose personal information for legal purposes or in connection with our corporate business purposes, we will limit the personal information we provide as much as possible, and we will condition our sharing of that personal information on strict confidentiality restrictions and security instructions as often as possible.

Non-Personal Data (75.2%), Required Purpose (93.0%):

We may use and disclose anonymized or generalized (non-identifiable) aggregated information with third parties for various reasons, including to promote and improve our Services.

Organisational Measure (93.1%), Processing (95.9%):

In these circumstances, we will take appropriate measures to de-identify (and prevent any party from re-identifying) any information used or disclosed in this way.

Required Purpose (98.0%):

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING; TRACKING; OPT-OUT As explained above, if you are a School or a teacher, administrator, or staff member under a School-Created User Account, we may use your information for limited advertising and marketing purposes, including to contact you about Services that we believe may be of interest to you, and to promote other Apptegy resources and events.

Technical Measure (96.9%):

We use cookies, beacons, and other similar tracking technologies.

Personal Data (74.2%), Required Purpose (91.8%):

These are small text files containing an identifier (a string of letters and numbers) that are sent by a website server to your browser when you visit a website and are stored in your browser.

Required Purpose (98.2%):

We only use these technologies for the purpose of providing and improving our Services for our Users.

Required Purpose (99.5%):

A few examples include: we use cookies that are necessary for the Services to function (for example: to remember your cookie preferences), to personalize the Services and to recognize you when you return to the Services (for example: to remember your language preferences), to help us measure and improve engagement with Users (for example: to analyze the usage trends and patterns for our different products), and to promote Services that we believe may be of interest to you.

Required Purpose (89.5%), Third Party (99.4%):

We do not use the technologies for third party targeted marketing or advertising purposes.

Organisational Measure (79.9%):

In some cases, you may manage the use of cookies for our Services by adjusting your individual browser settings.

Not Required Purpose (67.9%):

Please note that we will not use or disclose information (whether personal or otherwise) about individual students collected from Schools or School-Created User Accounts for the purpose of commercial marketing or targeted advertising.
