COOKIES To help us serve your needs better and those of your end user customers, CoDriver and our third party partners, such as advertising and analytics partners, use cookies to store and sometimes track user information.

Technical Measure (87.5%):

These cookies may be either session cookies (that last until you close your browser) or persistent cookies (that last until you or your browser delete them).

Required Purpose (98.9%):

A website can use cookies to recognize repeat users or track web usage behavior and other activities, or those of your end user customers.

Technical Measure (69.8%):

Cookies take up minimal room on your computer and cannot damage your computers files.

Technical Measure (96.3%):

Users of the Site or CoDriver Services should be aware that non-personal information and data may be automatically collected by virtue of the standard operation of CoDrivers computer servers or through the use of cookies.

Consent (69.4%):

If you do not want information to be collected through the use of cookies, your browser allows you to deny or accept the use of cookies.

Required Purpose (95.6%):

There may, however, be many features of the CoDriver Services which require the use of cookies in order to provide for the delivery of information and services to you or your end user customers.

Third Party (72.8%):

Users should be aware that CoDriver cannot control the use of cookies (or the resulting information) by unrelated third parties.

Processing (98.7%):

INFORMATION FROM OTHER SOURCES We also obtain information from third parties and combine that with information we collect through our Site and the CoDriver Services.

Processing (98.6%), Required Purpose (95.0%):

Use of Disclosure of Information We use and disclose your information for the primary purpose for which you have provided the information and overall to provide the CoDriver Services.

Personal Data (63.0%), Required Purpose (94.6%):

Such primary purpose may include for example: To facilitate scheduling, manage your account, responding to your inquiries or providing other customer services and support, or with respect to your end user customers; To alert you about relevant payment information including for example past, current and upcoming charges, presenting billing history and performing internal finance processes; To understand and improve the CoDriver Services by researching and analyzing your use of, or interest in, the CoDriver Services or other products, services or content offered by others; To communicate with you by means, for example, of service and administrative emails to ensure the CoDriver Services are working effectively; Subject to your opt-out preferences, to communicate with you regarding new potential product or services features, or other news about us or on topics we think would be of interest to you.

Organisational Measure (63.6%), Processing (96.2%), Required Purpose (84.7%):

In addition to the use and disclosure of information outlined above, we also use and disclose information for purposes ancillary and consequential to the primary purpose of collection.

Third Party (84.9%):

To this end we may also use the services of agents, service providers or contractors.

Required Purpose (62.3%):

These service providers may have access to or process your information for the purpose of providing those services for us.

Required Purpose (98.7%), Right (93.0%):

We may also disclose information (including personal information) to a third party if (a) we believe that disclosure is reasonably necessary to comply with any applicable law, regulation, legal process or government request, (b) to enforce our agreements, policies and terms of service, (c) to protect the security or integrity of the CoDriver Services, (d) to protect CoDriver and its rights and properties, and those of our agents, customers and others, and to protect such parties and the public generally from harm or illegal activities, or (e) to respond to an emergency which we believe in good faith requires us to disclose information to assist in preventing the death or serious bodily injury of any person.

Processing (83.3%), Required Purpose (92.8%):

We may share or transfer your information, including your personal information, in connection with, or during negotiations of, any merger, sale of company assets, financing or acquisition, divestiture or dissolution of all or a portion of our business, including for purposes of investor presentations and general information.

Processing (82.0%):

In the event of an insolvency, bankruptcy or receivership, personal information may also be transferred as a business asset.
